BORN IN HALLE, FEBRUARY 23, 1685

DIED IN LONDON, APRIL 13, 1759

THE MESSIAH

ORATORIO, composed in 1741; begun August 22, finished September 14. Text selected from the Scriptures by CHARLES JENNENS. Produced in Dublin, April 13, 1742, under the direction of HANDEL. Additional accompaniments by MOZART, 1789; and by ROBERT FRANZ, for the use of the Handel and Haydn Society, completed and published in 1884. First performance by the Handel and Haydn Society, December 25, 1818, in Boylston Hall; present performance the eighty-sixth.

PART ONE

THE PROPHECIES AND THE FULFILMENT

I

OVERTURE

grave: fuga, allegro moderato

2-3

TENOR RECITATIVE

Comfort ye my people, saith your God : speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem ; and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord : make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

AIR

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low; the crooked straight, and the rough places plain.

CHORUS

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed; and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

5-6

BASS RECITATIVE

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: Yet once a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all nations; and the desire of all nations shall come: the Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to his temple; even the messenger of the covenant whom ye delight in; behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.

AIR

But who may abide the day of his coming; and who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire.

8-9

ALTO RECITATIVE

Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son; and shall call his name EMMANUEL, God with us.

AIR AND CHORUS

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain. O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid: say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God. Arise; shine; for thy light is come: and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

10-11

BASS RECITATIVE

For behold darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee; and his glory shall be seen upon thee: and the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

AIR

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; and they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

12

CHORUS

For unto us a child is born: unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful; Counsellor; the Mighty God; the Everlasting Father; the Prince of Peace

THE MESSIAH

EIGHTY-FIFTH PERFORMANCE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1892, AT 7.30

For years past we have been unwillingly compelled to turn away from our doors at every performance of The Messiah many hundreds of people for whom we could provide neither seats nor standing-room. In order to avoid this unpleasant experience, and to avert the reproaches of our disappointed friends, an extra performance of The Messiah, not covered by the season tickets, will be given on Monday the nineteenth. The choice of this date will accommodate those who cannot come on the Sunday evenings at this time of year, and who have often asked that this oratorio might sometimes be given on a week-day evening. This concert will also furnish those of the general public who are not season ticket holders an unusual opportunity for obtaining choicer seats than are commonly to be had.

MISS EMMA JUCH, Soprano

MISS EMILY WINANT, Alto

MR. WM. H. RIEGER, Tenor

MR. ARTHUR BERESFORD, Bass

Tickets for sale at Music Hall on Monday December 12.

SOPRANO RECITATIVE

There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them; and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people: for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying:

CHORUS

Glory to God in the highest; and peace on earth, good-will toward men.

18

SOPRANO AIR

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. He is the righteous Saviour; and he shall speak peace unto the heathen.

19-20

ALTO RECITATIVE

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped: then shall the lame man leap as a hart: and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.

ALTO AND SOPRANO AIR

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; and he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom; and gently lead those that are with young. . . . Come unto him, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and he will give you rest. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of him; for he is meek and lowly of heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

21

CHORUS

His yoke is easy, and his burden is light.

PART TWO

THE PASSION AND THE TRIUMPH

22

CHORUS

Behold the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world.

23

ALTO AIR

He was despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. He gave his back to the smiters, and his cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: he hid not his face from shame and spitting.

24-25-26

CHORUS

Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our intransgressions: he was bruised for our in-iquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him.

And with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way: and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

27-28

TENOR RECITATIVE

All they that see him laugh him to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying:

CHORUS

He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he delight in him.

Thy rebuke hath broken his heart: he is full of heaviness. He looked for some to have pity on him; but there was no man; neither found he any to comfort him.

AIR

Behold and see if there be any sorrow like unto his sorrow.

31-32

SOPRANO RECITATIVE

He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of thy people was he stricken.

AIR

But thou didst not leave his soul in Hell; nor didst thou suffer thy holy one to see corruption.

33

CHORUS

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in. Who is the King of Glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. The Lord of Hosts, he is the King of Glory.

Why do the nations so furiously rage together; and why do the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth rise up, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord and against his anointed.

42-43

TENOR RECITATIVE

He that dwelleth in Heaven shall laugh them to scorn: the Lord shall have them in derision.

AIR

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron: thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

44

CHORUS

Hallelujah! For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ: and he shall reign for ever and ever; KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. HALLELUJAH!

PART THREE

THE RESURRECTION AND THE GLORY

45

SOPRANO AIR

I know that my Redeemer liveth; and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first-fruits of them that sleep.

46-47-48-49

CHORUS

Since by man came death,
By man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die,
Even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

50-51

BASS RECITATIVE

Behold, I tell you a mystery: we shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

AIR

The trumpet shall sound; and the dead shall be raised incorruptible; and we shall be changed.

56-57

CHORUS

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by his blood; to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. Blessing and honor, glory and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Amen! Amen!

Will those who cannot stay through the last chorus kindly take advantage of the pause before it begins.
